Background

Prometheus Guardian Trust Limited (In Liquidation) (“the Company”) was incorporated to act as the Trustee of a finance company.

The finance company has now been wound up and so the reason for the Company has ceased to exist.

Proposals for conducting the liquidation

The liquidators will conduct an investigation of the Company’s books and records to further establish if there are any potentially voidable transactions that require investigation, and further to ensure that the directors have complied with the duties and obligations imposed on them under the Companies Act 1993.

The liquidators will then complete a final report and request that the Registrar of Companies remove the Company from the register.

Statement of Position

The liquidators have not prepared an Estimated Statement of Position of the Company as at the date of liquidation as there are no assets or liabilities.

Meeting of Creditors

After having regard to the assets and liabilities of the Company, the likely result of the liquidation and other relevant matters, the liquidators, in accordance with Section 245 of the Companies Act 1993, have decided to dispense with a meeting of creditors.

A creditor may request, by way of a notice in writing, a meeting of creditors within 10 working days after receiving this notice.

In accordance with Section 314 of the Companies Act 1993 a creditor or shareholder may request the liquidator to call a meeting of creditors or shareholders at any time in the course of the liquidation to vote on a proposal that a liquidation committee be appointed to act with the liquidator. This request must be in writing.

The liquidator may decline a request by a creditor or a shareholder to call a meeting on the ground that:

- (a) the request is frivolous or vexatious; or
- (b) the request was not made in good faith; or
- (c) the costs of calling the meeting would be out of proportion to the value of the Company’s assets.

The decision to decline a request may be reviewed by the Court on the application of any creditor or shareholder.

Please note that the liquidators can only act on written information as telephone, or other, conversations will be regarded as hearsay by any court.
